Robert Fossum voiced his opinion that to avoid a possible conflict of interest, all sales, including book sales, take place in the vendor room. After discussion it was committee consensus that this be re-visited at each stevne. Currently one vendor (Jim Olson) conducts sales in the Genealogy Lab. There are no other vendors with similar sale items (Norwegian genealogy resources). It was also noted that Jim assists the lag genealogists.

Each lag will have a table in registration area for sale of books and other items.
